

Julia Iris Steffey Cook

March 11, 1922 - December 24, 2017

Julia Iris Steffey Cook, 95, died on December 24, 2017. Iris was predeceased by her husband of 14 years, Carlyle Cook. She is survived by step-daughters, Rosalie Cook Shipp (Charles Shipp), Carol Cook Wilson (Julian Wilson), step-granddaughters, Shannon Wilson Dorn (Matthew Dorn), Cynthia Wilson Sudderth (Geoffrey Sudderth), Amy Shipp (Eric Schulz) and step-great grandchildren, Aleah, Luke and Ashlyn Dorn.

Iris was born in Fort Payne, Alabama on March 11, 1922 to Bruce and Roxie Steffey. She graduated from DeKalb County High School in 1941. Iris's career spanned 45 years with First National/Central Bank as a bookkeeping clerk to Assistant Operations Officer at her 1987 retirement.

Iris was a member of First United Methodist Church for 75 years where she faithfully served in many capacities including church treasurer.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, December 30th, at Wilson Funeral Home, Fort Payne, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon before a 12 noon service in the chapel with Rev. Ricky Smith officiating. Burial will follow at Glenwood Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to a favorite charity or to First United Methodist Church for the Driskill-Wear scholarship fund, the beautification fund or Serving Our Savior fund.
