“ I loved Aunt June. She was so funny and made me laugh with her stories. You knew you had better mind June. If she told you not to do something and you did it anyway you might get a whooping. Just the thought of June being mad at you was hard. She was so loving you wanted to be on her good side. Her love of animals was obvious. She was just darling looking. She had her style and she looked great through the decades. My condolences for her large family who could probably write a book of funny dear memories. She was a joy to be around and I know they will all miss her.

“ I will always love and forever remember my Aunt June. She could give you a “look” over something funny and with a snicker the laughter would come. She was one of a kind for sure and loved her visits. To Ellen, Kelly, Jaye, Jason, Tracie, and Phil my sincere condolences. Marianne Brown Jones

“ I’ve known JUNE for over 40 years
A coffee lover, an animal lover, especially her doggies
Her house always smelled like percolating coffee and something good baking
-such a warm and welcoming place.
She was always gracious and kind to me when id visit with her daughter Kelly, her deep Georgia accent accentuated her colorful character.
I remember being in the car with Kelly and JUNE and the song “every breath you take“, by The Police came on She said she really liked that song and she was singing along with it...,tickled me.
She loved her family. I was proud to know her and glad to call her a friend. I love her family and i know she will be missed. ❤️

“ We absolutely loved June's Lemon Blueberry Bread. She shared the delicious bread, but kept her recipe a secret. I was very fortunate to have her share it with me!
June and Jim were precious great-grandparents to our grandsons Asher and Kelson.
She lived a full life.
