

Kaye Crowe Bussman

August 16, 1957 - December 26, 2017

Kaye Crowe Bussman, 60, of Fort Payne, died early Tuesday morning, December 26, 2017, at DeKalb Regional Medical Center despite gallant efforts by attending medical personnel. She was born August 16, 1957, in Fort Payne, an only child to Hubert and Maxola Crow. She is survived by her soulmate and husband, Stephen Bussman.

She is also survived by four children: Stanna (Robby) Guice, Fort Payne; Dana (Corey) Stricklen, Huntsville; Laurel Ann Marie Bussman, Russellville; and David (Grace) Bussman, Williamstown, Vermont, and nine grandchildren, who affectionately called her “KK”: Logan Parker, Elliott Guice, Sam Stricklen, Grayson Guice, Lucy Blair Stricklen, Caleb Bussman, Edie Bussman, Isaac Bussman, and Ethan Bussman. She is further survived by close cousins, Randall (Kathy) Brisendine and Vicki (Perry) Wilson, as well as numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins and a multitude of in-laws and their matriarch, Shirley Scott Bussman.

Kaye’s parents, Hubert Crow and Maxola Crow, preceded her in death.

Kaye was a lifelong resident of Fort Payne and retired as a Legal Assistant, a career that spanned nearly four decades of faithfully serving the clients of Pat Tate, Bill Scruggs, and her husband.

Kaye was a lifelong member of the Fort Payne church of Christ. She loved being active, travelling to professional tennis tournaments, the beach, and numerous other destinations, shopping, and spending time with her grandchildren. Her greatest accomplishments were singlehandedly rearing two great girls and seamlessly blending two families. She dearly loved her children and grandchildren. KK will be sorely missed.

Visitation is from 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 28, 2017 at the Wilson Funeral Home in Fort Payne. A memorial service will be held the next day at 2:00 p.m. also at the Wilson Funeral on Friday, December 29, 2017. Jim Campbell, Mark Dawson, and Shaunathan Bell will be officiating.
