“ Ken was a larger than life personality and touched everyone's heart in some way, always ready to lend an ear, he had a great sense of humor and everyone lit up when he was around. Ken adored his family and talked of them often with much love and admiration. He was a cherished friend of many and will be deeply missed. I know I will miss him dearly.

“ Thank you all so much for your sweet sympathies and stories. My Dad was a loving, caring and devoted father who never missed a birthday, and would go out of his way to cater to our needs. He loved me and my brother immensely, and made a constant effort to remind us of how proud he was of us. He loved all of our family and believed family was paramount. He was a sweet, charismatic man who was polite to all those he encountered including his customers and those who knew him. He was extremely entertaining with a larger-than-life personality and an endearing, droll sense of humor. He was a remarkable artist, master model craftsman, and an accomplished green thumb. He was an avid movie watcher/collector who appreciated a good movie, no matter the genre. He was a military aficionado, always eager to discuss the subject. He loved the beach, and wore only the finest aviator glasses. He was a PC gamer who loved a good action/adventure RPG. He was a music lover with an expansive taste, from Bad Company to Massive Attack, who even hosted an internet music radio show in his spare time. He was my best friend, and I loved him more than any amount of words can ever express. I will forever miss my "Dad Man". To those of you that are his on-line friends, know that Dad truly loved interacting with all of you, and being your friend and radio host was a treasured staple in his life.

“ i have looked up to Ken (Spaz) for many, many years. He was always that shoulder to lean on or word of encouragement when you needed a friend. At the same time he was an open dose of reality when the situation called for it- that many were often too hesitant to give. He was real, he was rare... From his warped sense of humor to his vastly eclectic taste in music...there will never be another like him and i will truly miss him. So long my friend...Gods speed...my deepest condolences to the family.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with KJ and John as they deal with this loss. It is a terrible thing to lose a parent when they are that young. I love you two so much. You are the brothers that God gave me because my parents couldn't. And I'm thankful for you everyday. You'll always be sad when you remember Ken, but the pain will eventually lessen enough that you can breathe when you think of him. My prayers are also with Ann. You were an amazing sister to Ken, and I know he appreciated you.
