I met Lacey through her parents Irene and Dave Lowe around 1999 when I worked as a GM for Arby's in Fort Smith, AR. Her mom Irene was one of my Assistant Managers. That was also the year that my mother passed away. Lacey made me a beautiful wooden handmade framed poem entitled "My Mama." It still hangs on one of my walls today. Lacey, Irene and Dave touched my life during our time together. I was blessed to be able to call them lifelong friends. May she rest in peace but live forever in our hearts. Fred Sproling, Ft. Smith, AR.
