“ I cannot remember life without Lavada and her family. I have never had a truer friend. I am going to use her opening sentence when we went to visit...I am blessed...for having known her. She blessed me in so many ways! Most of all her testimony of when she was saved. I can take you back to my Mother's kitchen today and the spot where we were playing when she told me about the Lord saving her. I was telling my granddaughter about how when we had young children, she got the monthly menu from the hospital and we planned our menus from it. When she was pregnant with her daughter, she ask me what she should name her. I suggested Faith. If I ever knew a person with faith, it was Lavada. She can use her beautiful voice to praise Him without growing weary. I am sad for me but so happy for her.
