“ My sincere condolences to the family for your loss. At this difficult time may you find strength and peace in Almighty God. Philippians 4: 6, 7: "Let your petitions be made known to God; and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus."

“ The passing of a dear loved one, is always a very difficult experience for the family. Sorry for your loss. The best friend that a bereaved family can have is our Creator and Father, God. He invites you to throw all your burdens on him and he will sustain you in this time of grief. (Psalms 55:22).

Lisa was a kind and gentle woman. I only knew her for a short time but she became a dear friend to me. May God surround each of you with his peace and comfort. And may he bless each of you. You all remain in my prayers.

I just read Lisa's obituary. I had no idea. I'm at a loss for words but would like to send my love and most heart felt condolences to the family. Lisa and I met at the store where I work and she became a very dear friend to me. She loved her girls and talked about them constantly. Please know your momma loved you so much and was very very proud of y'all. And to Stan, she also loved you with all her heart. I am so sorry for not attending her service, I had no idea until this very moment. And to Yolanda, I had no idea that you and Lisa were sisters until she told me a couple of months ago. She loved you and all of her family. If there's anything I can do for any of y'all, plz don't hesitate to let me know. My number s in Lisa's phone. Sending my love to each of you. God bless and comfort you as only He can do.
