“ Dear family, we are so sorry for the loss of Lori--she was such a blessing to us and our church! She loved aggravating me, and I enjoyed aggravating her--she and you all have always been so dear to us. (We regret we did not know of Lori's passing until after the funeral.) We are praying for you all. Just think: Heaven sounds so much sweeter today! Love, Steve & Karen Faith Baptist Church

“ Mrs. Patsy, Sis. Robin and Bro. Larry, I want to tell you how much Lori supported me during a very hard time. She was always smiling and a shining light to everyone she met. She was so positive, and uplifting no matter what the situation. She will be greatly missed, but we rest confident knowing she is with the Lord. My deepest sympathys go out to you, and I thank the Lord for getting the chance to know Lori.

“ Praying for you all. We love Lori and we love you. She will live forever in our hearts. What a time she must be having with Jesus. Her legacy will last forever as will her testimonies. It's hard to say goodbye down here, but the hellos up there are what we focus while we're here.

“ Mrs. Henderson, I am so sorry for your great loss. Lori was and always will be a special person. I remember when you all graced us with your presence as Fundamental Baptist Church Campmeeting. You all were a blessing then and now. Oh how she must be singing as I write. I am a little jealous that she is with our Father, Lord and Master. It is with much needed grace that we all even breath and have our being. May God's New Grace that Bro. Tom Hayes wrote about shower you and your family during this time. “ Dear Hendersons, I was in a Youth Camp Meeting at Antioch Baptist Church in Hogansville Friday Night when I heard the news of Sister Lori's passing. You all have been such a blessing for years with your singing to our Lord. I know that she is in the presence of our Lord and she is rejoicing with her Savior. Please know you are in our prayers during this difficult time.

“ We are so very sorry to hear of our dear Sis. Lori's passing. It was such a joy & a blessing hear her sing. She glowed with such Joy & Love while singing about our Saviour, I can only imagine how much more she glows now that she's singing to our Saviour! The following is a poem I (Janice) wrote when a dear friend of mine was called to Heaven at the age of 17. I hope it brings you comfort. If I Had Known If I had known that the last time I saw you, would be the last time Iâ€™d see you: I would have lingered a little longer, & I would have looked back as I walked away. If I had known that the last time we hugged, would be the last time weâ€™d hug: I would have held on a little tighter, & a whole lot longer. If I had known that the last time we kissed would be the last time weâ€™d kiss: I would have kissed both cheeks, & I would have done it over and over again. If Iâ€™d known that the last time I looked into your eyes, would be the last time Iâ€™d look into your eyes: I would have looked a little deeper, & never looked away. But I didnâ€™t know that our last would be our last, For God knew, that if I knew, I would have never let you go. We will now hold her in our hearts as God holds her in his arms!

“ Mrs. Patsy, Sis. Robin and Bro. Larry, Just want you all to know that we are praying for you. The news of Sis. Lori's death was such a shock. I have mostly been thinking about what a wonderful day she has had with her Lord and Savior. No more pain, sadness or disappointment for this precious little sister. But, my heart is also heavy for those of us who will miss her so! She blessed my life tremendously! Love you all and keeping you close in my prayers.
