“ I remember sitting on her front porch and just talking. She got me outside more than anyone ever has. She is also the one who taught me how to do cornbread. I loved sitting with her.

“ I have fond memories of Louise. Coming to Decoration, I always knew we were almost there when I saw the Yellow House. She was always so kind and welcoming to us all and filled her kitchen with wonderful dishes for anyone to enjoy. Smiling, kind, and welcoming. A wonderful woman. May her memory fill her families hearts with peace.
