“ I was so sorry to hear of Ms Brisendine's death. I visited with her frequently at WillsCreek Village where my father had been. She was a sweet lady and I enjoyed talking and having coffee with her and Mr. Casey. My prayers go out to your family. Wilma Playford

“ My prayers and thoughts are with the family as I know Lynette will be dearly missed. She was always so nice to me when I would spend the night with Donna. She is just one of those people you never forget no matter how many years fly by. I can still see her smile.
