“ Mrs. Solomon took a special interest in me and my sister, my whole family, in fact, when we were students at Darlington. She loved us like we were family. She cut my hair when my bangs were in my eyes and visited me when I was sick in the hospital, to give a couple of examples. I have long wanted to find her to thank her for everything but have been unsuccessful until now, too late to thank her here on earth. My husband is a priest; we will remember her at Mass. May light perpetual shine upon her.
