“ Here's to my amazing Grandmaw. She was beautiful, witty, kind and courageous. We weren't blood related but the bond that we created was special. I met you while on vacation in the south and will never forget our talks and your love for animals. You're responsible for raising my hilarious and caring father, when I had none and for this I thank you. You will be missed.

“ *Miss Mary or rooster as I would call her caught my heart the first day I saw her. It was uncanny we had so many things in common.
We both shared our stories about out pet roosters and the found out they had the same name. We would laugh till we cried. Such a sweet and loving person. She loved the oatmeal cookie cream pies. Goodness at the pies I would sneak to her. I'll miss her deeply. We formed a bond immediately. I called her rooster and she called me hen. I will love you forever rooster. You are now in the hands of God. Your loving friend hen.*

“ To the Williams family. I am so sorry to hear about the death of Mary. It is never easy to deal with the death of a loved one no matter the circumstances. May the fond memories of times you shared with Mary bring you comfort and peace. May God ease your pain as you remember His promise of life in a new earth where death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3 & 4)
