“ Dear Neeley family, Your daughter is so beautiful. Please remember the promise of our lord Jesus to awaken all those sleeping in death. (John 5:28,29) Soon Morganne will awaken to a new earth that is free from all of the distresses of today-including death. (Revelation 21:4,5) May you all find real comfort and hope in the beautiful promises of our precious God Jehovah found in his word the bible. Take care

“ Dear Stacey and Dianne, no one should experience this type of loss. I know that this loss continues to hurt in your hearts. The God of comfort is there to help us get through the difficult moments that we have (2 Corinthians 1:3-7). Despite the difficult times, we have hope, Revelations 21:4 God say “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” May these words be a comfort to you. My sincere condolences.

“ To the family of Morganne Neeley,
The faculty and students of the JSU Social Work Program are so very sad about the passing of Brooke this past weekend. Our hearts are hurting for what the world will miss by not having her presence and for what her family will miss after spending 21 years seeing her smiling face. I am thankful for the time she spent at JSU and I know that those closest to her appreciate the time she was here and will cherish the memories of time spent with her.

We will work hard to honor her memory.

“ I met Morganne in June 2007 when we all went to Hawaii. We worried about her getting bored with us older ladies, but she fit right in. Always smiling and laughing and kept us laughing. She was a joy to be around. So glad I got to meet her and spend that time with her. A beautiful girl inside and out. Heaven gained a beautiful angel. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families.
