“ Nell was one of the best people I have ever known. She took care of all of us at FPMS - faculty and students alike. She was caring and kind. I considered her a dear friend. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ Nellie's youngest son and my son, Chris White, were very good friends growing up. Chris spent the night with them often and both Nellie and her family were so genuinely nice and welcoming. My sincere condolences to her children and their families.

Nellie was a cousin of mine. We had in the last few years become closer and had began communicating more. I hate so badly that I just today, 12/30/22, found out about her passing. She was a very sweet person who cared about her extended family very much. I pray that her family will realize how special she really was. Lona Jones Brannon
