“ Jeanne was the best person I ever met in my life, not one of the best, the BEST! I was so blessed to have her in my life. I will miss her dearly ☐ If I could only be half the woman she was I would be happy, but that is not possible. I never heard her say a bad word about anyone or to anyone. She never complained, everything was always ok. She was strong and humble and I am proud to call her my friend 🙏 I know she is in a much better place and is in no more pain. Rest in peace with your family in heaven, I hope to see you again someday, I love you my sweet friend ❤️🙏

“ She was my best friend, we started out in the first grade and were still friends. She was at my house or I was at her house. I know we kept her mom up at night because of all the giggles we had. Rip my sweet friend, you're not hurting anymore but my heart is broken 💔. Until we meet again and share more giggles. Love you

“ I loved my sweet sister, Jeanne. We would talk almost everyday. I will sure miss those talks. It was such a blessing to hear her voice. She seemed to accept all the things that came her way and never complained about her illnesses. She would amaze me as to the way she kept going in spite of the difficulties she faced over the past 29 years. She would be taking chemo treatments, but still enjoy working in her garden, putting up food from the garden or cooking a meal.

We got to spend several days together the last 2 months of her life. I would tell her I was sorry she was having to go through all of this and she would say, "Someone has to go through it, so it might as well be me." She never got mad at God. She always trusted Him through the difficult days.

Jeanne was a wonderful sister/sister-in-law. She was so hospitable to us when we stayed with her and Mike while Phil was preaching and I was sharing with "Scotty" in area churches. We will surely miss her, but it is only goodbye for now, we will see her again.

Tho it's been a lot of years, I still remember the good times we shared while working at VIP. Jeanne was a newly wed and she loved her Mike and looked forward to raising their children together in the house that she helped build. Good times, good memories.
