“ Words do not sufficiently express our feelings at times like these. Know that you are in our hearts and minds, always.

Andrea Rissler Bartley - January 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ To all of the Family, Pam was like a beautiful rose in our lives. Brian, Marris and I will all miss her laughter, smile and wonderful personality. We will do anything for you that we can, just let us know what, where and when. If you do not call us, we will call you. Love, prayers and hugs to all.

“ May God's comforting hand be on Pam's family during this difficult time. It was my privilege to have known Pam. She was so passionate about her business as well as all her fellow merchants. I pray that Pam's desire for the success of all local merchants will live on.

“ I am so very sad to hear this news of Pam! I consider her a friend. She is someone who helped me in times of need, was an amazing encourager, and just all around good person. I will miss calling her up and stopping by the store and just talking about all kinds of things. I will be praying for her family, because as hard as this is on her friends, I cant even imagine the emotions you as a family feel!

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. Rest in peace you will be loved and missed forever. Co-worker; Mevludina

“ I was shocked and saddened to learn of Pam's passing. I know many hearts are aching at the loss of such a beautiful soul. I was a high school classmate of Pam's and we had stayed in touch - especially over the last couple of years. She was one of the few friends who was so generous in her manner and her ways... she even sent me a couple of care packages to South America - complete with Girl Scout Cookies and little gifts from her shop. I wish I was there with you to share fond memories, but please know that my prayers are with you all.

“ My prayers go out to Pam's family. Pam, I wanted you to know..I stopped by to see your mom today. We hugged and cried. You, Pam, were taken far too young and far too soon. You were a breath of fresh air to our community. I will miss you! Jayme

“ Pam was one of my oldest and dearest friends. All I can think about is how much I want to talk to her right now. We've shared so many memories, milestones, and laughs over the years, I can't imagine her not being a part of my life. My deepest condolences go out to her family, because as important as friends were to Pam, her family was even more so. Pam was an incredibly genuine, smart, strong, witty, caring, gracious person. Although she is gone, her spirit will live on.
