“ There is no way to explain how much I miss you...you were my best friend and far more for many years.how many laughs have we shared together,how many tears? We had our share of hard times and still made the most of them,God blessed us with more good times than Anyone could count.looking back their all good somehow.Good memorys....I never imagined when I took this picture of you it would be used for this.Always thought it was a good picture though.I miss you Mechelle and love you always,I'm so thankful you chose to spend so much of your short life by my side.You hold a special place in my heart,I would give ten years of my life for just one more day with you....there is no where within a hundred miles that there is not a memory of you.You will never be forgotten....love Robbie
