“ I met Mrs. Peggy while delivering meals-on-wheels for a few months. She was always a delight! She complimented my blouse one day, and I mentioned that I had bought it at a thrift store. She immediately said "Take me with you sometime when you go!"

“ I worked with Peggy for long enough to love her and respect her for the hard work she did. She was so good to me and we had lots of laughs together. Her heart was huge and she would do anything for a friend. I am not physically able to be with her and her family and friends tonight but, my prayers are with them. Peggy, I loved you all the days of our friendship and I was honored to be your friend. Rest in peace Peg-leg!
