“ Phyllis was one of my earliest friends. We were constant companions along with her cousins Gail and Sue from first grade through 8th a Plainview School.
I want to send my Love and Sympathy to her husband Gary, children and grand children. She was a wonderful
Person who gave of herself her entire life. Rest In Peace Dear Friend, I Loved You Much!❤️🌹

“ Phyllis Kirk was the most godly woman and friend to everyone she met that ever walked the face of this earth. When she and Bro Gary were at Bethel Baptist in Geraldine, she was loved by everyone. We will never forget when our grandson was dedicated to the Lord, she used him to demonstrate Gods love and creation through him. We love you.. Tommy and Linda Dowdey.

“ I grew up at Chavies Baptist church and I will always remember sweet Phyllis's smile. My father Kenneth, was one of the senior sponsors at Plainview when Phyllis was a senior. Even though there are some people you haven't seen in many, many years you never forget a sweet spirit. sending my sympathy to Gary, Sherry and the rest of the family, Dale Brown
