“ Randell their will never be anyone to take your place in our family. You were a person that shined above all others. Love you Son, wait for us at the gates. Beth's family

“ Randell was more than a brother-in-law to our family. He was a brother. Always there when we needed him, or just someone to go fishing with. You didn't have to worry about being judged by him, you could be yourself and he loved you for it. He was an amazing Uncle to my girls, a brother to my husband, and for that he will always be loved and missed.

“ One of the last memories I have of my Uncle Randell is him doing a self-less deed for me. We were leaving his house early on a Sunday morning. He could have lounged around, he didn't need to get up with us, but he did (even earlier than we did) to change the oil in my car before we left. He wanted to do that for me. Him and Chas talked the whole time. He taught me some things during it. He said that if anyone gave me any problems with it to let him know. That's the type of man he was. He would help his family and friends with anything he could. If he was able - he'd do it. He also kept his word. I just kept saying "thank you Uncle Randell" and he just kept saying "you don't have to thank me. I'm happy I could do it!" Then we stopped through the drive thru to get Aunt Beth her favorite breakfast. We all ate breakfast and then left. Before we left...we talked about all we were going to do the next time we were at their house. I never thought he wouldn't be here.

“ There are so memories I can share of our loved Uncle Randell. Some memories that immediately bring a smile to my face, some that make me laugh, and some that make me shake my head. If you knew him you probably had a few of your own. He was an amazing son, brother, uncle, and so much more but most importantly he was a wonderful husband to Aunt Beth. I feel honored to have seen their love in person many times. I will miss seeing their selfies on their trips around the states and from their couch. He was an awesome man who didn't deserve this. He should still be here. We love you, Uncle Randell.

“ I am in complete disbelief to know your gone. You were always like my little brother. Most of my childhood we all spent many days and nights playing torturing one another. You and Patrick would always drive Amie, Libby, and me crazy. I know your love and legacy will stay with all of us. Until we meet again little brother.
I love you always

“ We will miss you so much, that laugh, the energy, and the love. The love you had for your new wife kept a sparkle in your eyes and heart. You changed your life completely for her, we were so proud of how you changed and was so so happy... Now you will be her Guardian Angel, we love and will always miss you.... Love Daddy and Mama Teresa 🥺
