“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Dear Sara and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when I first met you and Randy in Collinsville at your business. I have always had a lot of respect for both of you and counted you as friends. Randy was a good man. Always a gentleman. I am happy that I had the opportunity to see both of you last summer. My deepest sympathy to you all. Love, Rebecca Dellinger

“ Randy was one of the first people we met when we moved to the area. We enjoyed living in his "home place" home for our first year. He was always such a kind and dear man to us. Thoughts for his family at this time. He isn't suffering anymore, but sure put up a strong fight while he could.
