Visitation will be Tuesday, March 5, 4:00 till 8:00 p.m. at Wilson Funeral Home Raymond was born January 16, 1927, in Fort Payne, son of the late Rev. Andrew and Minnie Murphy Haas. He was a life-long resident of Pine Ridge and a member of Mt. Hermon Baptist Church. He was preceded in death by his wife of 63 years, Mary Helen Horton Haas, and all of his brothers and sisters: Ernest, Marvin, Bud, Leslie, Herschel, and Herbert Haas; and, Dovie Garrett, Evelyn Chandler, and Virginia Bain. Survivors include daughter, Sherri Haas; daughters and sons-in-law, Becky and Clemon Camp, Judy and Bill Ayers; grandchildren, John (Lori) and Charles Camp, Kirbi and Kiefer Kuykendall; great-grandchildren, Grady, Sadie, and Wylie Camp; several nieces, nephews and other extended family. He was a veteran of World War II, serving as an Army field artillery communications technician in Japan. He retired from the U. S. Postal Service in 1987 as a rural carrier. Raymond began work as a teenage auto mechanic in his father's and brother's Fort Payne shops. He later worked at Fowler Pontiac in Fort Payne. In 1965, he designed and built Mary's Carpet Golf and Slot Car Race Track in Fort Payne. For the last 16 years, he designed and built Alabama Washer Games and held the copyright for "Perfect 21" game rules. He was a man of many skills who loved a challenge and never tired of learning something new and then finding a better way to make it work. He will be remembered for his love of life and family, his sense of humor, his smile and cheerful disposition, and his pride in a job well-done. Wilson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements

“ Mr. Haas was our mailman for most of my life. He was such a nice person. When my grandmother was older, he would knock on the door when he brought the mail and she enjoyed seeing him daily. I know that he will be missed.

“ We are saddened by the news of your father's passing. Death is something we never get used to. One day soon, Jehovah God has promised to eliminate death forever and bring our loved ones back to life. John 5:28,29. What a loving promise to comfort and console our hearts! Your family is in our thoughts.

“ So sad to hear of the passing of your Father; He was a pillar of the community and will be greatly missed. He truly is in a better place and at peace; surely blessed to be reunited with your Mother. They raised three wonderful women, who took loving care of them both. You all are blessings to so many people and you honor your parentâ€™s everyday with your kindness and compassion.
