“ Uncle Bob, you were my hero in so many ways. When I was a toddler, you were my hero and we would dance with you in your polyester suit and gold chain while disco music blasted. Then when I got older I realized you actually were a hero to our entire country in a completely different way and now, 3 weeks ago when we shared that last cup of coffee together, when you were trying to make ME feel better because I was so sad because you were so sick, you were my hero again. I am so glad your pain and suffering is over. I will love you for the rest of my days and we will dance again. Cue the Bee Gees Uncle Bob. My hero.

“ *Dad,
Was always a stubborn one! He lived life to fullest, was full of quick wit and always had a place in his home for friends and family. He is now free of pain and at Heavens door. You will be missed Dad! I love you from here to eternity.*

*Your daughter,
Serena*
