April 12, 1929 - March 31, 2021

Robert "Bob" William Clark, age 91, devoted husband and father, left this world on March 31, 2021, to share his giant heart and humor with Heaven. He was born in Lee County, near Giddings, Texas; preceded in death by his parents, Calvin Robert Clark and Emily Schroeder Witte.

Bob served in the US Army Air Corps and US Air Force for more than 20 years with tours of duty in New Mexico, New York, Texas, Louisiana, Japan, Germany, and Labrador with retirement at McGuire AFB, NJ. He and wife, Ann, moved to Fort Payne after visiting and falling in love with the mountains. He quickly built long-lasting relationships in the community. He founded a social group, "The Dead End Coffee Club" comprised of neighbors and friends, which will carry on after him. Bob had many talents and hobbies including his love for wood-working, fishing, camping, and music. Bob never met a stranger. When greeted he always said, "This is the greatest day of my life and tomorrow is going to be better." He believed it and LIVED it!

“ Daddy, I guess we all thought you would live forever—sharing your wisdom and making us laugh! I loved when you told a story from your past...told with so much passion and detail that anyone listening would feel like that had experienced it too! I loved the way you would laugh after telling a joke—I'm going to miss that for sure. I am going to miss dancing with you in your den to some old Patsy Cline record. I'll play that Alan Jackson tribute to George Jones for you, one more time. Love you dearly.
