“ I can't think of anyone my father spoke about more than his precious aunt, Ruby. Goodness, he loved her. The last time I saw a Ruby was at my grandfathers 98th birthday party. She drove herself. :) She and my grandfather laughed and laughed, then she locked eyes with me, held my face with her hands and as she teared up, she said "Adriane! Oh, how I see your father." She gave me the biggest most loving hug. I will never forget that day. Her love was so BIG. Her own stories and the stories of Aunt Ruby are such a part of my life. Those stories are a living bridge between the past and future of our family. What a blessing it was to have an Aunt Ruby. I love you Sue, Deidra & Audra.

“ Sue I'm so sorry for your loss. Lord have mercy for the memories I have of this lady. She was a true lady in every fiber of her being.....what you see is what you get and if you ask for her opinion you better be ready to hear what she has to say. I dont think anybody (except Sue) really knew the real Ruby. I know she took me with a grain of salt but treated me with her kind of love and she knew I loved her dearly. Peaceful memories Sue 🙏
