“ I did not know Sam very well as I only had a few interactions with him, but one memory I have of him is from a youth retreat with First Baptist. During our down time he would play his guitar out on the porch of the cabins we were staying in. Something he loved doing. He was a good kid. Rock on and rest in peace, Sam. You'll be missed.

Sam was one of the most dedicated and determined young man I have yet to meet. He worked hard to earn his Eagle badge by getting food donations for Bread of Life Ministries. His family and his church are forever supporters.

Dearest Shankles Family,

What an amazing young man whom I wished to have known personally! At one time being a colleague of Angie's, I have the pleasure of knowing her and sweet little Annabelle. Like so many, I share a deep-hearted sympathy for your entire family. I pray that you all will be strengthened daily by all the prayer warriors praying relentlessly for your family. Most of all, I pray that God's grace and mercy will immerse you during this difficult time of grief and the days ahead! However, Angie, as you alluded to in a post previously, there is comfort in knowing that you all will see Sam again...get ready Heaven because Oh, what a day of rejoicing that shall be!! Amen!!

*Love you, my dear friend,
Donna Jones*
