“ Sammy was a great leader to our class. He was a true friend to all and a great guy with a sweet smile that seemed to say, "everything is going to be ok". May the Lord comfort his family. He will be missed.

“ Sammy became a dear friend to my family when he began his Business -Valley Customs many years ago and he rented a building for that business from us.Loved his friendship and always willingness to help everybody. We talked about Heaven the last time I talked to him and I am so glad we will meet there again one day.
