“ Sarah was not only a friend too me she was my sister, we I would visit Momma Eva and Daddy Sonny, we could sit up all night laughing and sharing memory's and I will forever keep those in my heart. Sarah was a loving, caring, giving, friend and sister, the last few times we talked on the phone we share how much we loved each other and all the wonderful times we had together, I will forever keep each of them in my heart... I know today will be hard on her children and grandchildren and the rest of the family and friends, I truly wish I could have been there but know you all are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Auntie Nancy.. 🌸🌺🌸
