

Susan McDonald Pollard

December 13, 1949 - November 27, 2021

Susan McDonald Pollard, 71, of Fort Payne, passed away Saturday, November 27, 2021. She was born December 13, 1949 to the late James Hale McDonald and Johnnie Ruth Owens McDonald. She was a devoted member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church where she faithfully served as a Sunday school teacher for many years. Mrs. Pollard graduated from the University of Alabama with a Masters degree in Education and taught elementary school for over 33 years. She continued to volunteer at the school reading and playing games with the children. She enjoyed serving at the Bread of Life ministry and had an exceptionally generous heart.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at Walkers Chapel Cemetery with Rev. Darrell Morgan officiating. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made to St. Paul's United Methodist Church, 303 9th Street NW, Fort Payne, AL 35967.

She is survived by her husband Kenneth "Bud" Pollard; daughter Hayley Vandenhuerk Odom and husband Mark; step-son Kenneth Pollard, Jr.; grandchildren Carlie, Ellie, and Cole; sister Elaine Overstreet and husband Alex; niece Jamie St. Clair and husband Eric; great-niece Maeve St. Clair; and special caregiver Melissa Kerley.

“ *Haley , you may not remember me. I was the secretary at FAS and worked with your sweet mother for years.
I am so very sorry to learn of her passing. After I retired I kinda lost track with all the wonderful people I worked with there.
Please know you and all the family are in my prayers and thoughts.*

“ I am so sorry I will not be there to pay my respects to the family. Susan was a dear friend and one of the most giving, gracious people I have ever known. I taught with her for several years and we remained friends after she retired. I am so sorry to hear of her passing, she will truly be missed, and Heaven has gained a precious soul.
