“ Dear Aunt Virginia and family,
From my entire family here in The Netherlands, Please accept our sincerest condolences for your loss.
I have very fond memories of Uncle Tommy as a boy and have had the pleasure to get to know your Son David and lovely Daughters Beverly and Rebecca when I lived in California.
The world has lost a wonderful warm good hearted man, father, uncle and grandfather but heaven has gained a gentleman.
Our prays and thoughts are with you all.
sincerely,
Stephen, Sjoukje, Nick, Cees and Marc Gniewyk

“ Please accept our sincerest condolences. We only knew Tom and Virginia for a few years but came to know him as a good Catholic man and Knight of Columbus. The world has lost a good soul and Heaven has gained one.
