“ I'm so sorry for your loss. When we were younger, I didn't know Todd as much as I did Bert who I knew form church and highscool circles. A couple of years ago, Todd was sitting with Julian at Kentucky Fried Chicken and he called me over and introduced me to her. Recently, I saw him again at the visitation for my father. We didn't have a long conversation either time, but I ended up being impressed by him because it was clear that the was a very plosives, generous, and good guy.

“ I know there are no words to help how you are feeling. When I heard of Todd's passing, I remembered all the good times we shared on Plains Avenue. I remembered riding to school with Todd. (We would always listen to Hank Williams, Jr.) I remembered calling on Todd when my cat died. I especially remembered the friendship I shared with Gena. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Marilyn, You have my heartfelt sympathy. There can be no greater loss than to lose a child. Todd was such a great and mannerly young man. When he was working across the street from us, you could expect a smile and a good morning from Todd. He always shared a watermelon with us if there was one anywhere around. You can be very proud of your son. Our love and best wishes to you and your family. Love, Jo and JW.
