“ Truman V Sharp , my oldest brother was everything my youngest brother , Jerry said. He was a kind and loving man . He cared and loved others and gave his time and energy to others. He served his country in the army on his tour of duty. He loved to laugh and cared for others . He had two daughters , Patricia by his first wife Nell who came to the funeral . His second daughter Melodie and her family came also. His last wife Lura Lyons Sharp was able to come but she was very weak. She like Truman had been a helper to those less fortunate. Lura and Truman would go to church and sit with Mama at Ft Payne Church of God. Brother Johnny passed away , too. He had been in Nursing home Rehab for couple of years. My husband and I were able to visit him weekly and we 3 prayed many times together. He had been very ill . I talked to him about heaven and his eyes lit up and he had a big smile in his face but he was very weak . He passed within 2 days. He was ready for heaven. I am so thankful we were able to share the time with Johnny.
