“ Verlon was our neighbor and the first person we met when we moved here. We knew we picked the right spot after meeting him! He was the best neighbor we ever had who often shared his heart which was part of his faith.

Verlon Garmony was a true Southern Gentleman and we will miss his fellowship.

“ I worked with Verlon at Builders for many years. We would talk about a lot of topics. One thing he always shared his faith in God and Jesus. I retired in 2015 and when I would go by the store I would go out and see him and he would ask me about retirement and I would tell him how good it is. He was a good friend, He will be missed.
