“ To Nathan and Family: I am so sorry for your loss. Nothing can be said nor gesture made that can bring more comfort than time and now it seems that time stands still. Wow, what a beautiful photo of a beautiful woman. Just remember that Grief is a selfish necessity. To remember without grieving is to honor with a smile. May God bring peace to you all.

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and share the hope promised in the Bible. Isaiah 33:24 promises the time when an end to sickness will become a reality. God will put an end to pain, suffering and even DEATH. God promises at Isaiah 25:8 that death will be swallowed up forever. When God’s will take place on the earth as in the heaven, God’s Kingdom will fulfill the promise in this scripture. Jesus, who will be the king of God’s Kingdom also promised that “those in the memorial tombs will...come out.” (John 5:28, 29) and “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.” (Psalms 37:29)
