“ I have been out of town for several weeks and was so saddened when I returned today to learn of Wilburn's passing. He was a great, wonderful friend for all the years he and I worked at Vulcraft. I always knew when he was in the office for I could hear him down the hall talking and laughing with everyone. I knew he would eventually come by my office and share something funny. He was a wonderful man and had a great, outgoing personality. Everyone loved him. I am so sorry for your loss and my loss of a friend.

“ The loss of a loved one in death, is a time when comfort is needed. It is through the privilege of prayer that we experience God's love and comfort in the most intimate way. May you find comfort in prayer to "the God and father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials.
