“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have such sweet and special memories of your family. When you were children and I was guest of Kenneth and Marie at the boat club, I can close my eyes and hear Mary's tinkling laughter and Chug's encouraging voice. (I was terrified of the water.) But I never feared getting in the boat with Chug Hope! Kenneth thought you were the nearest perfect children he had ever been around. So when you see sun sparkling on the water of the Tennessee River, remember your parents were as refreshing and dependable as the waters that flow. Peace be with you.
