“ I took skydiving lessons with Bill in the late 80's, and did several jumps with him. Later, when I was in Quantico for Marine training, he wrote me a letter that included the line, "This started as a note of encouragement but has turned into a letter to a friend." I have never forgotten those words. (By the way, to my surprise his handwriting was beautiful!)

“ I met Bill in 1990 when I took skydiving lessons at his shop in Van Nuys, CA. He joked with me because of all girls I took to California City to skydive with.

“ I remember Bill in high school, what a dare devil. Yes, he was so proud of being a marine. He taught parachute jumping when he lived in Calif. He taught his kids at the time.

“ Our prayers are with Jean and family. Bill was such a fun person. Our telephone conversations were always lengthy as Bill shared his many adventures. I will miss our times sharing. He was a great member and supporter of our Marine Corps League. Semper Fi!

“ I met Billy while skydiving at Elsinore in the 70's. He was a prankster and always made me laugh. He'd scare me at night wearing a Gorilla costume. He loved people and having fun. Blue Skies Billy...RIP
